Klan Leader Plans Organizing Crusade

TEXARKANA, Tex., Nov. 17 Warden L. M. Connett said (UPI)—Robert M. Shelton, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, emerged from a nine-theory of the normal allowance for good month stay in prison today behavior and he received an and said he would lead a additional 15 days award "for white crusade to free the good work." Connett said he country from the "infested had no authorization to disblack carcass that's dragging us down."

Shelton was released from the Texarkana Correctional Institution ater serving nine months of his year's contempt of Congress sentence for refusing to disclose Klan membership rolls.

He met with newmen in a back room of a restaurant.

"I'm organizing the Normans, the Celts and Anglos, the Saxons, the Hugenots, the German martyr-blood people into a bond of unital said Shelton.

"A silent majority has realized that it is no longer a question of bad government.

"It's a question of impossible government, and we are chained to the infested black carcass that's dragging us down to the low morals and disruption that's in this nation today.

"I'm going back into the field again as head of the Klan organization and we're going to start one of the largest crusades this country has ever seen."
